

Do You Have 10 Employees? OSHA Requires You to Have a Written Emergency Action Plan!

Emergency Action Plan

You never know when disaster will strike, which is why it is crucial to prepare for any potential incident that might result in a business disruption. Many companies are not prepared for sudden emergencies...are you?

Do You Have a
Written Emergency Action Plan
as Required by OSHA?

Are You Familiar With the Minimum Requirements That Must Be Included in a Written Emergency Action Plan...Will Yours Pass the Test of an Emergency?

Reporting Emergencies

Have employees been instructed where to report emergencies?

Escape Routes

Have escape routes been mapped out? At least 2?

Shutdown Procedures

Who operates critical shutdown functions before evacuation?

Employee Count

Can all employees and guests be accounted for after evacuation?

Responsibilities

Have clear rescue and medical duties been assigned?

Questions

Have employees been given names to contact for info?

Treatment of a Serious Injury Ought To Begin Within 3 To 4 Minutes of the Accident.

Can You Comply in an Emergency?

Employers must make arrangements with medical clinics or facilities close by to handle emergency cases. If care is not close by, OSHA requires employers provide medical and first-aid services to their employees.

Are You Prepared for All Emergencies That Threaten Your Workplace?

- ✓ Avalanche
- ✓ Aircraft
- ✓ Arson
- ✓ Structure collapse
- ✓ Civil unrest
- ✓ Earthquakes
- ✓ Extreme weather
- ✓ Wildfires
- ✓ Dam breaks
- ✓ Flood/Tsunami
- ✓ Explosion/Fire
- ✓ Workplace Violence
- ✓ Hurricanes
- ✓ Tornadoes
- ✓ Pollution
- ✓ Fuel/Food storage
- ✓ Landslide
- ✓ Chemical Spill
- ✓ Lightning
- ✓ Power/Utility failure

Many think of just workplace fires when creating workplace emergency action plans. But, a workplace emergency is any unforeseen situation that threatens your employees or visitors. Emergencies may be natural or manmade.

Are Your Employees Prepared? Are You Meeting OSHA Compliance Requirements?

We Offer an In-Depth Compliance Check!

1. Checklist

We review an in-depth checklist examining how well your company complies with this and other related compliance concerns.

2. Review

We provide an extensive report outlining compliance gaps with thorough explanations, examples, and corrective guidance.

3. Implement

We provide policies, training, and support to help you achieve compliance. We provide detailed timelines showing our involvement.

4. Monitor

We continue to help maintain compliance with consistent reviews and updates as government agencies release regulation changes.